

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

HENKEL

Technician (Temporary)

Major duties:

Under the supervision of Senior Chemists, the Technician will be expected to perform the following functions with a high level of initiative and independence: - Preparation and testing of adhesives, sealant, coatings. - Evaluate, collect and record data. - Participates in organizing and performing experiments using established procedures while summarizing and reporting results in a laboratory notebook. - Uses a computer to enter data/information including charts and tables for communication of project results/details. - Involved in making adhesives/paints/coatings from chemical ingredients.

Requirements:

- Associates or Bachelor's degree in including but not limited to chemistry, chemical engineering, materials science and engineering
- Demonstrated laboratory experience - Comfortable and able to work with chemicals while following safe laboratory practices/protocols; Ability to stand while working in the laboratory throughout most of the day; Ability to understand and follow experimental protocols for preservation of data.
- Computer literate in Microsoft Office products - word, excel and powerpoint
- Ability to work 40 hours/week

This is a one-year contract position with great opportunity to be exposed to full-time positions at Henkel.

Contact

Zhongwei Liu, Ph.D.
Manager, Product Development
AMI

Henkel Corporation | One Henkel Way, Rocky Hill, CT 06067 | O: +1-860-221-3408